- #1 Plaintiff is being charged wrongly and fraudulently being prosecuted by the state of Delaware.
- #2 To further the fraud by the state they are ignoring a police report statement that the victim stated the plaintiff was not the shooter.
- #3 To further the fraud the police failed to investigate the fact the shots had to come from one of the houses in the area because the accused shooter the plaintiff and victim were all being shot at.
- #4 Police failed to search for bullets at the alleged shooting scene, but they claimed there was 3 shots.
- #5 Police and prosecutor are taking the word of the only person hurt.
- #6 Police and prosecutor have failed to discover or try to find a gun nor any gun powder traces on the accused shooter or plaintiff.
- #7 In order further the fraud, refused to do any test to prove or disprove there was even a gun shot by plaintiff or any other person accused of said alleged crime.

- #8 Defendants failed to develop a motive for the alleged shooting above a $15.00 CD player that Lane gave back to witness.
- #9 Defendants never questioned Lane as to gun powder blast going off in his face because he states he saw Paul shoot him.
- #10 In order keep plaintiff from receiving all the rule 16 evidence that only knew victim Lane was treated for gunshot wound and "the bullet was surgically removed but not kept for evidence to convict or exonerate plaintiff of the charge.
- #11 DET Teresa A Williams interviewed Lane at Christiana Emergency Room - But according to her report failed to obtain evidence that would prove plaintiffs innocence.
- #12 The fact that a bullet lodged in Lane's head the bullet would have gone through his head his skin proves that the bullet came from a long distance away and ended up in Lane body.
- #13 Not checking for gun in the home for went vital evidence that the bullet that lodged in Lane's head came from one of the back porches of the homes in the Row Homes.
